ABOUT THE PROMOTION

LoCo Pro Wrestling started in 2017 as a single show built specifically for Longmont. Thom Ingram, a Longmont high school teacher, and Aaron Macomber trained together at Primos Premier Pro Wrestling's Butcher Shop in Denver. Ingram booked the Dickens Opera House and brought in students as the crew, building a show around the city and its history.

Battle for Main Street was meant to be the only one. The promotion went dormant, Ingram moved away, and Macomber took it over and brought it back to the Dickens Opera House in November 2025, eight years after the first bell. The factions and the Longmont mythology carried over. Last Stand at the Lodge brought LoCo to the Elks Lodge Ballroom on August 30, 2026. The promotion returns there for Consequences on Coffman Street on January 24, 2027, with matches and story episodes available free on YouTube between shows.
